BIG WEEK

Lubbock Christian University have a big week ahead, as they return to the Sooner State for a pair of Sooner Athletic Conference contests against opponents they are neck-and-neck with in the SAC standings. The week begins Thursday at 8 p.m. in Alva, Okla. against Northwestern Oklahoma State University before closing Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. in Oklahoma City against Oklahoma Christian University.

The Chaps are 6-7 in SAC play and are in eighth place in the standings. LCU sits a half-game ahead of Oklahoma City in the standings and a half-game behind Northwestern Oklahoma State (7-7). Oklahoma Christian is in fifth place with an 8-6 conference record.

LOOKING BACK

No.14 Southern Nazarene closed their contest against LCU with a 13-5 run filled with nine free-throws to dodge an upset and sneak out of the Rip Griffin Center with a 68-64 win over the Chaparrals Saturday afternoon in a Sooner Athletic Conference contest.

For the Chaps, the loss is another result of what could have been. LCU, falling to 10-10 overall, has now suffered their eighth loss decided by single digits and their seventh decided by six or less points. It is also their sixth consecutive game decided by five or less points. The Chaps also fall to 3-4 in contests against ranked opponents, with the four losses containing an average deficit of 5.3 points.

The game featured nine lead changes and the score tied on 10 occasions. Neither team led by more than six points in the game. The Crimson Storm out-shot LCU in the game 52% (26/50) to 40% (20/50). The Chaps trailed 33-30 at halftime despite being out-shot 50% (14/28) to 39.3% (11/28) in the half. Both teams put on a clinic from the charity stripe. LCU was 19-of-20 (95%) from the line in the game and SNU was 12-for-12 until missing their final free-throw attempt to finish 12-of-13 (92.3%).

LCU received a solid performance from Douglas Williams in the loss. Williams led all players with a game-high 20 points and game-high eight rebounds. Jon West led SNU with 14 points. He was 5-of-8 from the field, 2-for-2 from long-range and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line.

FROM THE STRIPE

The Chaps finished last season ranking second in the NAIA from the free-throw line with a free-throw shooting percent-

They are led offensively by Jonathan Freemyer, who averages 14.1 points a game on the season.

THE SERIES AGAINST NWOSU

LCU season series was split last season. The Chaps lead the all-time series 12-10.

THE LAST MEETING AGAINST NWOSU

Feb. 19, 2011 - Alva, Okla. - LCU 78 - NWOSU 70
The Chaparrals knocked off then-No.25 Northwestern Oklahoma State University 78-70 at Percefull Fieldhouse in Sooner Athletic Conference action.

Kenny Hewitt was the Chaps leading scorer with 19 points, but Matt Read had the better shooting line, going 5-of-7 from the field and 3-of-3 from three-point range. LCU had to overcome a slow start in the game, as they climbed back from a 34-20 first half deficit and 40-32 halftime deficit. They did it with 57.1% (16/28) field goal shooting in the second half and by holding NWOSU to a 33.3% (9/27) second half shooting percentage. LCU was 10-of-10 from the free-throw line in the first half and finished 19-of-22 (86.4%). NWOSU, who went from shooting 50% (7/14) beyond the arc in the first half to 9.1% (1/11) in the second half, received 22 points from Orren Tims and 19 points from Marshall Bell in the losing cause. Rashad Sample came close to a triple-double for LCU despite not garnering double figures in any category. He had nine points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

ABOUT OC

The Eagles enter the week winners of their last two games and four of their prior five games. OC, 14-7 overall and 8-6 in the SAC, is 9-3 at home and they open up the week hosting Wayland Baptist Thursday. Their contest against LCU is the third game of a four game home stand. Following the home stand, the Eagles will play just one of their final five games at home.

THE SERIES AGAINST OC

The all-time series dates back to 1971 and OC leads the rivalry 35-17. The Eagles swept the Chaps in the season series last season.

THE LAST MEETING AGAINST OC

Feb. 17, 2011 - Oklahoma City - LCU 69 - OC 82

If one of the Chaparrals 28 missed three-point field goal attempts would have went in, it could have been a different outcome in their Sooner Athletic Conference tilt at Oklahoma Christian University. LCU had their five-game win streak come to an end despite a double-double from Kenny Hewitt (21 points, 10 rebounds), as Oklahoma Christian held off the Chaparrals 62-59.

LCU could not get into an offensive rhythm early in the game, as they shot just 22.2% (8/36) from the field in the first half. They made their first two three-point attempts, but finished the half 2-of-18 from long range (11.1%). Oklahoma Christian led 30-22 at the half, but they faced some shooting woes as well in the first half, going 2-of-11 (18.2%) from three-point range.

The Chaps would end up missing their first four three-point attempts in the second half, marking 20 consecutive three-point misses until they finally ended the dry spell from beyond the arc. OC led throughout the second half but not without dodging several LCU rallies. They had a 36-26 lead slip away, as LCU cut the deficit to 39-38 with a 12-3 run. The Chaps tied the game at 49-49, but the Eagles answered back with a 10-0 run to place the score at 59-49 with five minutes remaining.

LCU attempted a late rally, trailing 62-54, by not allowing a point over the game's final three minutes. Al Duvall made a three-pointer with 35 seconds remaining to cut the Chaps deficit to 62-59. Kendre Talley was fouled and missed both free-throws with 24 seconds to go, providing life for the Chaps. LCU put the ball into the hands of Matt Read, who was unable to hit the equalizer from the right corner with two seconds remaining.

Will Reinke led OC with 18 points and 12 doubles. Eric Randall also added 18 for the Eagles, recording all his offensive damage in the second half.

FUTURE FORECAST

LCU returns home next week to host Mid-America Christian on Thursday and Oklahoma City on Saturday.
