NORTHWARD BOUND

The No.7 Lubbock Christian University Lady Chaparrals head to the highway to face the only two Sooner Athletic Conference teams they have yet to face, as they travel to Alva, Okla. to play Northwestern Oklahoma State University Thursday at 6 p.m. before travelling to Oklahoma City Saturday to battle Oklahoma Christian University at 1 p.m.

LCU enters the week atop the SAC standings, serving as the only unbeaten team with a 13-0 conference mark. They are riding a program record 14-game win streak. Northwestern enters the week in a three-way tie for fifth in the conference with Oklahoma Baptist and St. Gregory's, as they are all with 7-7 conference marks. Oklahoma Christian, who will face Wayland Baptist Thursday, is desperately seeking to end an eight-game losing streak and they are tied for 11th with a 2-12 SAC record.

SATURDAY FLASHBACK

The then-No.9 Lady Chaparrals rallied in the second half for a 59-53 win over No.16 Southern Nazarene University Saturday afternoon inside Rip Griffin Center to break a program record with a 14-game win streak.

LCU had to rally in the second half after Southern Nazarene erased a 32-27 Lady Chaps lead with a 14-2 run highlighted by back-to-back three-point field goals from Samantha O'Shields with 10:56 remaining. LCU responded with a 14-4 run, which included an 8-0 run amidst the surge, and took a 48-45 lead with 4:06 left. O'Shields connected with her third three-pointer of the half with 3:16 left to tie the game at 48-48. SNU would go the next 2:44 without a field goal and LCU would go on a 7-1 run jumpstarted by an old-fashioned three-point play by Emily Atkins. The final nine LCU points came from the free-throw line.

The free-throw shooting for LCU was a little shaky. The NAIA leaders from the charity stripe were shooting 50% (6-of-12) from the line until they closed the game making all 12 of their free-throw attempts to finish the game 18-of-24 (75%). The 12-for-12 shooting performance came during the final 4:41 of the game, with six of the makes coming from Hampton. The game marked just the fifth time this season and the first since Dec. 1 in which an opponent out-shot the Lady Chaps from the field (11-game span). The Lady Chaps were 35.1% (20/57) from the field in the game marking just the third time this season the Lady Chaps have shot less than 40%. LCU has not shot under 40% since the second game of the season. Neither team was able to connect long range as successful as their numbers entering the game had indicated. The two teams combined to go 5-of-25 (20%) from long-range, with LCU connecting on just one of 10 attempts. Hampton hit the only LCU three-pointer. O'Shields was 3-for-3 from long-range for SNU, but the rest of her teammates combined to go 1-of-12.

LCU had four players contribute double figures offensively led by a 14-point and 14-rebound double-double from Kelsey Canavan. She was joined by April Ehlers (13 points), Hampton (11 points) and Atkins (11 points). Hampton had to rely on her free-throws to put freshman Nicole Hampton made history in Saturday's 59-53 win over No.16 Southern Nazarene, as she went 6-for-6 from the free-throw line to set the NAIA Women's Div. I record for consecutive free-throws made by notching 60 consecutive free-throws.

Hampton, a freshman from Canyon, Texas, helped keep the Lady Chaps Sooner Athletic Conference record clean at 13-0 with her performance from the free-throw line. All six free-throws came in the final 4:06 of the contest, with her first trip coming with LCU leading 46-45. The record breaker came with 25 seconds remaining in the game during her second trip to the line. She not only extended the Lady Chaps lead to 57-51, but she tied the NAIA Women's Div. I record held by Jackie Weaver of Trevecca Nazarene (2005/2006) with her first free-throw attempt and then broke the record making the second free-throw of the trip. Hampton closed out the game making an additional two with a trip to the line as 17 seconds remained in the game. The mark of 60, which will continue into the Lady Chaps next contest, stands not only as a NAIA Women's Div. I record, but also as a NAIA single-season record in women's basketball. The NAIA and collegiate national record comes from the NAIA Div. II ranks, as Deb Remmerde of Northwestern College (Iowa) made 133 straight spanning two seasons (2006). The NCAA all-levels record and single-season mark is held by Jamey Gelhar of St. Martin's, as she connected on 78 consecutive attempts during the 2008/2009 season. The streak from Hampton started on Dec. 1st and has been active through 13 games. Along the way to its current mark, Hampton had to snap the LCU program record, which was ironically held by her sister Brittany Roberts last season. Roberts was successful on 41 consecutive free throws last season. The string of free-throws has Hampton leading the NAIA with a 94.4% free-throw percentage.

HER OTHER STREAK

Nicole Hampton has a streak of 15 consecutive game in which she has scored 10 or more points.

CHARITY STRIPE SUCCESS

LCU leads the NAIA with an 80.8% free-throw percentage. The Lady Chaps have finished in the top-10 in the NAIA in free-throw shooting for six consecutive seasons: 10/11 (9th), 09/10 (5th), 08/09 (2nd), 07/08 (1st), 06/07 (6th) and 05/06 (9th).

FROM THE FIELD

LCU had not shot less than 43.5% from the field over a nine game stretch and had eclipsed 50% in five of the seven games, until being held to a 35.1% shooting percentage in the Saturday win over Southern Nazarene. Despite the shooting woes Saturday, LCU still garnered the win and is ranking fourth in the NAIA in field goal shooting at 45.0%.

ROLLING ALONG

LCU is off to an 13-0 SAC start for their best SAC start in program history. They are the only team undefeated in conference play. LCU is 4-2 against ranked programs with four straight wins over ranked opponents.

WEEKLY HONORS

Nicole Hampton was rightfully rewarded for her historic accomplishment this week, as she was selected as the Sooner Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week for Jan. 23-29, giving LCU a string of four honorees in a row and all by different players.

Hampton, a freshman guard from Canyon, Texas, established an NAIA Div. I record by making her 60th consecutive free throw. The streak covers 13 games and she broke the record of 57 held by Jackie Weaver of Trevecca Nazarene. Hampton set the mark of 60 Saturday by going 6-for-6 from the line in a win over No. 16 Southern Nazarene. The streak is still intact. She averaged 13.5 points, 9.5 rebounds, 5.5 assists and 3.5 steals on the week in wins over USAO and Southern Nazarene to help LCU extend their win streak to a program record 14 games.

An LCU player has received Player of the Week honors seven times this season. The last four and six of the last seven honors have been issued to Lady Chap players. Hampton becomes the third LCU player to claim the honor twice. Her first honor came in Week 6.

ABOUT NWOSU

The Lady Rangers are under the direction of first-year head coach and former Oklahoma City University assistant Stephanie Shaw, and they are 10-9 overall and 7-7 in the SAC. They have not had consecutive wins or losses since Dec. 5 and Dec. 31, which is a streak of 10 games in which the team has alternated wins and losses. They are coming off a heart-breaking 70-69 loss to current-No.1 Oklahoma City. LaParis Newsom came off the bench to lead NWOSU with 15 points. They rank 13th in the NAIA in steals per game (11.7) and Autumn Klugh is fifth in three-pointers per game and (2.8) and eighth in total three-pointers made (54).

THE SERIES AGAINST NWOSU

LCU leads the all-time series 19-4 dating back to 1986. The Lady Chaps have won the past four meetings and 19 of the last 20.

THE LAST MEETING AGAINST NWOSU

Feb. 19, 2011 - Alva, Okla. - LCU 86 - NWOSU 73
The then-No.19 Lady Chaparrals received 22 points from Emily Atkins and they combined for 10 three-pointers in an 86-73 Sooner Athletic Conference road win over NWOSU inside Percefull Field-house.

LCU used a 30-18 scoring advantage from three-point range in the win. Atkins was 3-of-6 from beyond the arc, where she scored 9 of her 22 points. LCU also received 14 points from Brittany Roberts, 11 from Courtney Wilson and 10 from April Ehlers. The Lady Chaps shot 54.2% from the field in the second half (13/24) after shooting 34.3% (12/35) in the first half. They led at the half 37-26 and held a 70-51 lead in the second half. LCU had a 46-33 rebound advantage, as Wilson and Ehlers combined for 16 of the boards for the Lady Chaps. The game was not all that crisp, as the two teams combined for 51 fouls, 40 turnovers and 59 free-throws. LCU was 26/33 (78.8%) from the line.

ABOUT OC

The Lady Eagles have struggled this season with a 7-14 record and a 2-12 mark in SAC play. OC opened the season 3-0 with three games with at least 86 points of offense, but they have only produced four wins and have had only one game of at least 80 points of offense since (18 game stretch). Of their current eight-game losing streak, five of the losses have come at home. Despite the 7-14 mark, OC has some national recognition in the statistical rankings, as Katy Clift leads the NAIA with 63 three-pointers. She ranks third in treys per game (3) and her success has OC ranking fifth in the NAIA in three point field goals (171) and sixth in three-pointers per game (8.1). They also rank sixth in free-throw shooting (76%).

THE SERIES AGAINST OC

OC leads the all-time series 29-11 dating back to 1979. Despite trailing the all-time series, LCU has won seven of the last ten meetings.

THE LAST MEETING AGAINST OC

Feb. 17, 2011 - Oklahoma City - LCU 69 - OC 82
Then No.19 LCU had their nine-game win streak come to a crashing end, as the Lady Chaparrals suffered several offensive woes they could not overcome and fell 82-69 at Oklahoma Christian University in a Sooner Athletic Conference.

With 8:57 remaining in the opening half, April Ehlers gave LCU a 14-13 lead with a shot in the paint, but then everything went downhill. LCU went the next 8:53 without scoring a single point. OC took advantage of the LCU scoring drought going on a 20-0 run. The Lady Chaps were 0-of-15 during the scoreless sequence and committed six turnovers before Renee Wilson ended the dry spell with a basket with four seconds remaining in the half. LCU trailed 33-16 at the half.

In addition to the scoreless sequence, which the Lady Chaps could not overcome, LCU could not get a three-point shot to fall. They were unsuccessful on their first 17 three-point field goal attempts. Once Rachel Gray hit the Lady Chaps first three-pointer, the Lady Chaps made five of their final nine attempts. The three-pointers helped LCU close the deficit, but the closest they would get would turn out as the final score.

LCU finished the game 19.2% (5/26) from three-point range and 31.1% (23/74) overall from the field. They received 15 points from Renee Wilson and 12 points from Haley Burton. OC received an 18-rebound 13-point double-double from Katy OSteen and 20 points from Katy Clift. Mica Havens supplied OC with 18 points.

OC improved to 12-15 overall and 6-13 in the SAC, while LCU fell to 18-7 overall and 15-4 in the SAC. The Lady Chaps fell into third place in the SAC. They return to action Saturday at 1 p.m. in Alva, Okla. facing Northwestern Oklahoma State University
